

	Workshop 2: Thursday, 1:30 – 2:20
A 1 A, G, P  30	Teaching Students Biblical Worldview Mr. Paul Smith; Citizen Impact USA, Loganville, GA This session will cover the definition and application of Biblical Worldview and how it relates to Education, Marriage, Sanctity of Life, Civil Rights, and Social Programs. Teachers will be equipped to teach students a Biblical view of today's world.
A 2 H  30	Congressional Classroom: Learning by Role-Playing Mrs. Gail Nicholson; Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC Are your government students confused by the setup of our government? Are they tired of lectures, tests, and quizzes? Here's a hands-on approach to teaching an exciting subject – the U.S. Congress. Bring Congress to life by directing students in a mock House and/or Senate. The workshop includes instructions on procedures, materials, and preparation.
A 3 A, G, P  30	Leading Your Children to Genuine Salvation: Principles and Pitfalls Dr. Hubert Hartzler; Christian School Leadership Ministries, San Antonio, TX This seminar identifies common pitfalls to avoid and foundational principles to follow when leading children and youth to saving faith in Christ. Topics include helping our students gain assurance of salvation and the Biblical evidences of genuine salvation.
A 4 A, G, P  30	We Need to Talk about TikTok Dr. Matt Davis; Maranatha Baptist University, Watertown, WI TikTok is now the #1 website/app in the world, with more than 1 billion videos viewed daily. 100 million American users spend an average of over an hour every day watching videos. Most users are 13-16 years old! Is it dangerous for teens? Do you understand the risks? We need to have an honest talk about what the research shows and how Christian schools can protect their students and families.
A 5 A, G, P  30	Checklist for Administrators Mr. Dan Zacharias; Old Dominion Association of Church Schools, Broadway, VA Has your Christian school dotted all of its legal I's and crossed all of its regulatory T's correctly? Come prepare to hear, and to share, a number of things your school currently needs to be doing to maintain a good relationship with government at all levels. We will discuss health and safety issues to graduation requirements, and many things in between!
A 6 UE  75	Reading and Writing Well Miss Amy Amsbaugh; Pensacola Christian Academy, Abeka, Pensacola, FL Come find out ways to have smooth handling of reading and penmanship while also helping out students who are struggling in these areas.
A 10 E, H  140	Differentiating Mathematics for Struggling and Gifted Students Mrs. Krista Smith; Veritas Baptist College, Fredericksburg, VA Come and learn practical strategies, insights, and resources to unlock the mathematical potential of both struggling and gifted students, promoting engagement and excellence in the mathematics classroom.
A 14/15 G  75	Encouragement for the Weary Heart Dr. Heather Hancox; Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC Ever feel burned out or overwhelmed with the busyness of life? Stressed out trying to juggle family, work, and ministry? Struggling with guilt over the time you spend working in the evenings? This workshop offers encouragement and tips for weary teachers and moms trying to find balance between serving their students and their families. For Ladies

A 16 H  30	Getting Students to Grasp Grammar Miss Karmen Baker; Pensacola Christian Academy, Abeka, Pensacola, FL Grammar is vital to communicating clearly in both the written and spoken form. In this session, you will learn some tips that will help you reach students who don't have a strong grammar background and show all students that grammar is systematic and easy to grasp!
C 1/2 A, G  75	How the Brain Thinks and Learns Mrs. Dana Davis; Maranatha Baptist University, Watertown, WI Connect new research about the brain and learning to classroom practices that are proven to be effective.
C 3 A, G  40	Building Strong Foundations: Integrating Orton-Gillingham into Literacy Instruction Mrs. Amy Wall and Mrs. Samantha Thomas; Be the Light Education, LLC, Manassas, VA Unlock the power of the Orton-Gillingham approach in literacy instruction. This workshop explores practical strategies for seamlessly integrating Orton-Gillingham principles into your existing teaching methods. Discover the key to nurturing strong literacy foundations in your students and leave them equipped to make a lasting impact in the classroom. Join us on a journey toward more effective and inclusive literacy instruction.
C 4 A, G, P  40	The Cause of Creation Mr. Jeff Setzer; Creation Family Ministries, Hickory, NC What is "The Clergy Project Letter"? What was the overarching influence in Jeffrey Dahmer's horrid crimes, and did he trust Christ in prison? What must Bible believers understand and do about Biblical creation to make lasting change in our culture and around the world? This presentation presents nine critical factors about the foundational importance of the creation worldview.
C 5 K  40	Finding the "Fun" in Kindergarten Activities Miss Charity Kerr; Pensacola Christian Academy, Abeka, Pensacola, FL We're going to examine effective teaching methods you can use for the various activities you do with your students – art, music, recess, poetry, drama, and language development. We'll also discuss a number of creative ideas for increasing student engagement and enjoyment and review several poems and finger plays you can use for the smooth and active transitions that students need to stay focused and alert.
C 6 E  40	Developing Vocal Technique in Elementary Voices Mr. Matt Smith; Shenandoah Baptist Academy, Cleveland, TN Every child should learn to use their voice in healthy ways. By using a series of fun and profitable warm-ups, directors – even those of us with low voices – can help children to sing with clear tone and beautiful expression.
