

	Workshop 6: Friday, 9:30 – 10:20
A 1 3, 4 * 30	Simple STEM for Busy Teachers Dr. Brad Batdorf; Bob Jones University, Greenville, SC STEM activities need not be complex or costly. Learn why STEM is so popular right now, and how you can integrate Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math in ways that engage and motivate students.
A 2 8, 9, 10 * 30	Our World Today – The Post Flood World Mr. Skip Tilton; From Day One Ministries, Rock Hill, SC Understanding the true history of our world opens up the Scriptures to see and interpret our present world correctly. We will see some examples of how when we look at our world today, it is not the same as it was in the recent past. There are even things that have happened since the flood that affect how we understand our world today.
A 3 4, 7, 8 * 30	Fearfully and Wonderfully Made Dr. Rebecca Weier; BJU Press, Greenville, SC As your students discover who they are and how God has gifted them, they can pursue their calling and vocation with conviction and excitement. Helping students work through a series of questions and observations, you can help them discover where their gifts meet the world's greatest needs. This session is aimed at helping high school faculty and guidance counselors.
A 4 8, 9, 10 * 30	Partnering Successfully with Parents Mrs. Maureen Van Den Berg; American Association of Christian Schools, Washington, DC We believe the role of a teacher is to support parents in their God-given responsibility of rearing their children. Yet, working with parents is not always the beautiful partnership that we envision. How can we develop strong parent-teacher relationships that will strengthen the education of the child? This workshop looks at practical principles that guide our interactions and also lead to a healthy and peaceful school environment for the children.
A 5 8, 9, 10 * 30	The Big Beautiful Opportunity for School Choice in the Big Beautiful Bill Mr. Steve Cummings; American Association of Christian Schools Legal Office Earlier this year, Congress passed Trump's Big Beautiful Bill. The bill includes historic legislation that creates a federal tax credit scholarship program that will allow individuals to receive a dollar for dollar federal tax credit for contributions to scholarship granting organizations (SGO's). These SGO's then provide scholarships to students to use for educational purposes. This workshop will answer questions relating to this new legislation and help you decide whether and how your school can participate in this school choice initiative in the future.

A 6 3 * 75	Keeping Students Active During Activity Time Miss Katie Green; Pensacola Christian Academy, Pensacola, FL Activity time should be one of the most enjoyable parts of the day, but when not prepped, it can easily become chaotic. However, with a little planning, it can become a fun and productive break for both students and teachers. In this session, learn simple strategies to keep activity time structured, engaging, and something both you and your students look forward to!
A 10 6, 8, 9 * 140	Top 5 Things Every Teacher Should Know About Dyslexia Mrs. Dana Huss; Growth Ventures, LLC, Des Moines, IA This seminar is designed to empower educators with a deeper understanding of dyslexia and its impact on student learning. Participants will explore the top 5 essential facts every teacher should know about dyslexia, including its neurological basis, common signs, and the myths surrounding it. Learn practical strategies for identifying dyslexic students, offering targeted interventions, and creating a dyslexia-friendly classroom environment. We will also cover the importance of structured literacy approaches, such as Orton-Gillingham, and how to tailor instruction to meet the unique needs of dyslexic learners. Leave with the knowledge and tools to support students with dyslexia and help them reach their full potential.
A 11 9, 10 * 25	Inside the Principal's Head: The Untold Truths Every Teacher Needs to Know Mr. Mark Zockoll and Mr. Matthew George; Faith Baptist School, Salisbury, MD Step behind the scenes and into the mind of your school's principal with this eye-opening workshop. Drawing from candid conversations on the Christian Principals Podcast and real-world leadership experiences, this session is meant for teachers who want to build their relationships with their administrators for HIS glory. Gain fresh perspective on how your principal thinks about teacher support, student discipline, school culture, and the delicate balancing act of leadership. This interactive workshop invites teachers to engage openly, ask hard questions, and build bridges of understanding that foster stronger collaboration and mutual respect. Walk away empowered with insights that can transform your relationship with administration – and ultimately, your school community for HIS ministry.
A 14/15 1, 2, 3 * 75	Bringing Intensity and Enthusiasm to the Classroom Mrs. Rebekah Rulapaugh; Bob Jones Academy, Greenville, SC What we do matters. How we do it matters even more to the students in our classrooms. Let's make our classrooms come alive with excitement and intensity!
A 16 9 * 30	Enabled: Go Ahead and Play in the Rain Mrs. Brenda Riley; Veritas Baptist College, Fredericksburg, VA Join in a heartfelt ladies' workshop focused on discovering God's peace and learning to embrace life's quiet moments. Come and rediscover the beauty of slowing down. (Ladies only)

C 1/2 1 * 75	Three, Four – I Can Do More Mrs. Debbie Earwood; South Carolina Association of Christian Schools Characteristic behavior and development trends for children, age two to four, will be presented. Signs of possible developmental delay will also be included for each age level. (CCCCD Certified Training – Growth and Development)
C 3 4, 8 * 40	Seen, Known, and Loved: Helping Students Overcome Loneliness in a Hyperconnected World Mrs. Renée Fouts; Pensacola Christian Academy, Pensacola, FL In a world that often promotes self-centeredness, teaching students to care for others is more important than ever. This session will provide practical ways to cultivate empathy, kindness, and a servant's heart in students. Learn how to integrate Biblical principles of love and compassion into everyday classroom interactions and discussions.
C 4 8, 9 * 40	Bridging the Gap Mrs. Maranatha Sweet; Abeka, Pensacola, FL Many teachers today find themselves standing at the edge of a gap – a space between where their students should be and where they truly are. Some have fallen behind, struggling to grasp concepts they ought to know. But gaps are not impassable; they are simply bridges waiting to be built. In this session, we will discuss time-tested teaching methods that support struggling students, examine ways to help them regain lost ground, and find encouragement in the steady, faithful work of guiding them toward success.
C 5 4 * 40	How Did You Do That? Part 2: Technology Hacks to Reinforce the Secondary Classroom Mrs. Christine Hand; Bob Jones Academy, Greenville, SC Does your classroom have the ability to use technology, but you're too afraid to try? Many tech tools that can reinforce your lessons are very easy to use. We'll take a look at tools from one device to many devices.
C 6 3 * 40	Language Arts Beyond Reading: A Look at Grammar and Writing Mrs. Becky Teruel; BJU Press, Greenville, SC Is grammar fun or ho-hum in your classroom? Is writing enjoyable or tedious? Join me to discover how you can make grammar and writing fun in your classroom and to keep your students excited, engaged, and loving the language arts.
