

Why Your School Should Join the Maryland Association of Christian Educators

Reason #4 - Information

Running a Christian school is a time-consuming task. You need help staying informed about issues that can affect your ministry. With MACE and AACS membership will come a steady stream of valuable information about a variety of important matters. The MACE and AACS offices will also provide a resource to which you can turn with questions for which you need answers. From legislative and regulatory information to information about insurance, testing, and other education issues - ODACS will give you valuable and time-saving assistance.

Operating in conjunction with the Old Dominion Association of Church Schools
