

Why Your School Should Join the Old Dominion Association of Church Schools

Reason #5 - Athletics

ODACS membership affords schools many opportunities for athletic competition in a Christian atmosphere. While it is common for schools to place an improper emphasis on sports, ODACS ministries strive to teach students to exhibit Christ-honoring sportsmanship while doing their very best. Conservative standards in dress and conduct set ODACS sporting events apart from those of other organizations. Regardless of the size of your school, you can find an opportunity for your students to compete.
